Foreign Secretary, The Rt Hon. the Lord Cameron of Chipping Norton
Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Office,
King Charles Street

April 25th 2024

Dear Foreign Secretary, The Rt Hon. the Lord Cameron of Chipping Norton,

We are writing to you as proud Jews including members of synagogues, Rabbis, leaders of Jewish youth organisations and Jewish student societies, Israelis living in the UK, parents of children in Jewish day schools and more.

Since October 7th, we have witnessed the horrors that the Israel-Gaza war has inflicted on Israelis and Palestinians alike. Many of us have friends and family personally affected by the atrocities that Hamas and other terrorist organisations committed on that dark day. We remain steadfast in our support for the people of Israel who, every day, live with the fear and trauma of what took place on October 7th. We are resolute in our support for the hostages and their families, who are living through a daily nightmare. We've been watching hostage families in Israel protest daily, begging the government to do anything they can – including ending the war – to release their loved ones.

We also look to Gaza and see devastating images of death and destruction. There are thousands of children that have been killed, thousands who have lost their parents and will be permanently scarred – physically and mentally – from living through the dystopian nightmare of this war. The people of Gaza are now facing the possibility of an entirely preventable and human-made famine.

Some of us will have personally experienced the rise in antisemitism and the way in which this conflict has been imported onto the streets of the UK. We know the same is true of Muslim communities in relation to Islamophobia. We know all too well how extremists hijack this conflict with the intention of causing further hatred and division. We are thankful for the continued support of both the government and opposition for their concern for the safety and security of Jews in the UK.

It is not always easy to hear the plurality of voices within minority communities and, at the grim milestone of six months of war, we want to make sure you hear our perspective on what we believe should happen next.

Firstly, we wholeheartedly support calls that both the Conservative and Labour Party have made for a bilateral cease-fire. Only a ceasefire will ensure that the remaining hostages come out of Gaza alive and that enough aid can enter Gaza to prevent a complete humanitarian catastrophe. Hamas cannot be eliminated purely by military force, not least because it is an ideology. Indeed, our fear is that the devastating impact of the war will breed the next generation of extremists.

Secondly, the international community must work relentlessly to prevent this nightmare from repeating itself. Israelis must be protected from the possibility of Hamas ever again being able to commit the atrocities of October 7th, and Palestinians need freedom and security in a state of their own. The only way to ultimately resolve this conflict is through a political, and not a military resolution.

We support the UK government, and any future government, taking robust action to set the region on the path of a political process aimed ultimately at ending, not just this war, but the conflict. This work can and must begin now, regardless of who is in power in the region.
Some of these actions could include:

- The UK playing a leading role in convening an international contact group that would support the international community in driving forward a political process.

- Aiding and supporting the security guarantees the international community will need to make to Israel to secure its borders.

- Working to strengthen and support reform in the Palestinian Authority (PA) as a moderate governing force and as a legitimate alternative to Hamas.

- Supporting international efforts to reconstruct Gaza – a reconstruction plan that is tied to a political process resulting in independence and statehood for Palestinians is essential for the region.

- Assisting Israel in its efforts to rebuild communities destroyed by Hamas in the south of Israel.

- Taking more robust action on extremist violent settlers who act with impunity, destabilising the West Bank and destroying the hope of Palestinian statehood. Settlements are considered to be illegal under international law and the UK has already sanctioned, and travel-banned a number of violent settlers, but this could be expanded to include many more individuals and entities that build settlement outposts and incite violence. This would also help to strengthen the PA who are seen as weak in the face of violent extremism.
- Recognition of Palestine, on 1967 borders – alongside an understanding that the precise shape of the final borders will be subject to the mutual agreement of Israelis and Palestinians – would help give confidence to Palestinians that there is something to be gained from a diplomatic process. It would also serve to weaken Hamas who do not accept the legitimacy of the State of Israel within 1967 borders.

- Continuing to provide support for peace builders in the region who are working from the ground up to build support for conflict resolution amongst both populations.

As people who care deeply about Israel's survival as a Jewish and democratic state, we hope that you will do all that is in your power to ensure the UK plays a key role in bringing peace and prosperity to Israel, Palestine and the wider region.

Signed by over 1,600 British Jews and Israelis living in the UK
